

Kensington Blend - Titanium

$28.00/tile

Part of the Kensington Gardens rug system, the Blend is representative of the rich earth so important to any beautiful garden. Each Kensington Blend square features an organic mix of the Kensington Current and Kensington Blossom styles. When all three styles are used together, they create the gorgeous, deconstructed English garden rug. You can also use Kensington Blend with other styles to create your own on-trend deconstructed look. This is a random pattern and no two tiles are alike. The pattern will not align.
